

Texas COVID Learning Acceleration Supports (TCLAS)

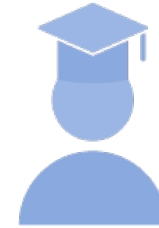

September 30, 2021

What is TCLAS?

- Texas COVID Learning Acceleration Supports
- TEA received $1.4 Billion in state and federal funds
- Multiple grants in one district application

What is included?

Support for up to 28 TEA initiatives, focused on learning acceleration:

- High-quality instructional materials
- Educator talent pipelines
- Additional learning time
- Innovative school models

CISD evaluated all TCLAS-funded initiatives and applied for 16 grants that align with CISD strategic priorities:

Instructional Materials

- Professional Learning
- Print Materials
- Literacy & Math Coaches
- Decodable Texts
- Texas College Bridge
- Interventions

Educator Talent Pipeline

- Para Certification & Education
- Education and Training Courses
- Implement and Grow E&T

Additional Learning Time

- Vetted Texas Tutor Corps
- ADSY Program Manager
- Academic Calendar Adjustments
- Learning Community Supports

Innovative School Models

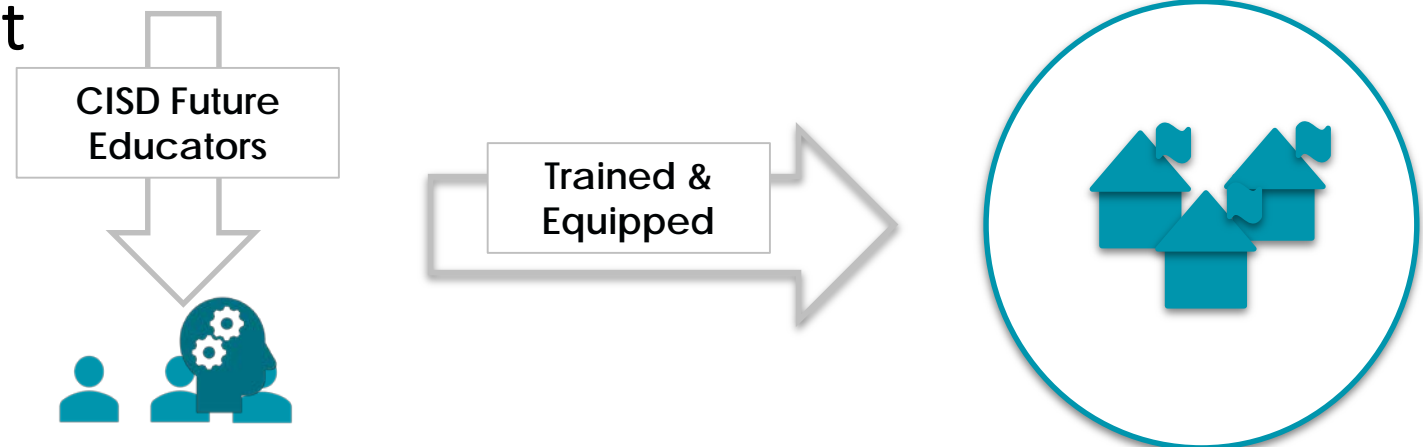

- P-TECH Network Success
- Dual Credit Faculty Expansion

Grow Your Own (GYO)

- Pathways for Paraprofessionals and HS students to become teachers
- Tuition reimbursement for Paraeducators

Education & Training Courses (E&T)

- Teacher training for dual credit expansion
- Increase student interest

P-TECH Expansion of Best Practices

- Postsecondary and the workforce transition
- Tuition-free college coursework; up to 60 credits/Associates Degree
- Work-based training - industry certification

Dual Credit Faculty Expansion

- Increase the number of educators teaching academic dual credit courses at College and Career Readiness School Model campuses

Benefits for Crowley ISD

TCLAS Categories	Funding $	Technical Assistance
Instructional Materials	$1,058,145	PD for Curriculum Pilot Decodable Texts
Educator Talent Pipeline	$119,000	Para Cert & Education E&T Courses
Additional Learning Time	$669,040	TEA-supported providers
School Models	$350,000
TOTAL GRANT	$2,196,185	$2,677,401 (In-Kind funds)

Total Award: $4,873,586

CROWLEY INDEPENDENT SCHOOL DISTRICT

Texas COVID Learning Acceleration Supports (TCLAS)

September 30, 2021

