Currently, serving as a volunteer in public service as a Citizen on Patrol in the City of Fort Worth and as a community volunteer.

Jungus Jordan was elected to eight terms (16 years between 2005 and 2021) as the Fort Worth City Council Member and represented the City Council District 6 in the far south and southwest portions of Fort Worth.

He is a Fort Worth native who was born at Carswell Air Force Base, attended local public schools and earned a bachelor's degree in economics from TCU and a master's degree in management from Webster University. He is also a graduate of the Management Executive Program at Cornell University.

Jordan enjoyed a distinguished twenty-year career in the United States Air Force that included tours of duty in Vietnam, Germany and in Force Management and Personnel for the Office of the Secretary of Defense at the Pentagon. He is the recipient of more than 15 medals and commemorations, including the Defense Superior Service Medal, Meritorious Service Medal, Air Force Commendation Medal and the Vietnam Service Medal.

Upon his retirement from the Air Force as a lieutenant colonel, Jordan returned home to work as a development officer at TCU, then as vice-president of Marketing and Business Development for the Eurpac Service Company. He served careers as a financial advisor with two national financial services companies and as Corporate Alliance Advisor for Cook Children's Health Care System.

Jordan married his wife, Glenda, in 1970. They have two adult children, Shaun – a Captain firefighter/paramedic in Mesquite – and Samantha – Director of Marketing and Communications, Center for Human Identification, UNT Health Science Center. Shaun and his wife Sumer have two children, Sophie and Sawyer. The Jordans are members of Doxology Bible Church.

During his tenure on the Fort Worth City Council, Jordan represented Fort Worth as a board member of the National League of Cities and the North Texas Commission. He served as the President of the Texas Municipal League between 2013-2014 and served on the Texas Municipal League Executive Board, the Vice Chair of the North Central Texas Clean Air Steering Committee and is the former Chair of the North Central Texas Regional Transportation Council. He is past chair of the Texas Municipal League, Texas Mayors of Military Communities and serves on the Texas A&M Transportation Institute Advisory Council (TTI). In 2007 and 2008, Jordan was Chair of Rail North Texas and served as Chair of the Passenger Rail Working Group and served on the Executive Board and past Chair of the Tarrant Regional Transportation Coalition.

He has also been an active civic volunteer, previously serving as chairman of Fort Worth's Zoning Commission and Process Improvement Committee. Other community involvement included service with numerous local charitable organizations such as the American Red Cross, Senior Citizens Services, Rotary Club, The Optimist Club and the VFW.
